SIZE OF WEDDING FEES. After you have krown a clergyman

for 20 years perhaps you can induce him to talk freely about his marriage fees-not before. The subject is too complicated; too personal; too disappointing. When you have broken down the barriers of his reserve, it is probable that he will tell you some highly entertaining stories. At least, ou may find them so. Large wedding fees are rare, even in New York. Fees of $50 and $100 are considered large. The $1,000 fee, when it makes its appearance, usually goes to the rector of a wealthy congregation who enjoys a salary of $10,000 or $12, 000 a year. Larger fees are sometime given. The man of wealth, actuated by a high regard for his pastor and friend, occasionally gives his check for $2,000 or $3,000 under the guise of a wedding fee. He wishes to help the DAY of NOVEMBER, 1910, at 12 o'clock by a high regard for his pastor and wedding fee. He wishes to help the minister, and knows the money would not be accepted under any other cirumstances. Such gifts, it is needless o say, are extremely rare.-[Frederic Walter Norcross, in the Christian Her-

PAPAL NUNCIO LEAVES.

Monsignor Tonti, the papal nuncio of Lisbon, yesterday left Portugal. His destination was not announced. It had been rumored that the pope had decided to recall the nuncio as a protest against the anti-clerical attitude of the republic. Antonio Almeida, minister of the interior, yesterday returned from Coimbra, and reported that the trouble at the univesity there was confined to the tearing up of royal portraits and the wrecking of furniture by the ultra-republican students.

The government is investigating the affairs of the national mint, the director of which Jose Lima, recently committed suicide.

Father Mattos, the Jesuit editor of an anti-republican newspaper, who was believed to have been killed, is alive and unharmed, according to an announcement made yesterday.

New adhesions to the republic are reported. Many wealthy citizens are contributing to the liquidation of the national debt. Government employes, soldiers and sailors are offering to donate a part of their wages for the same CONFESSED TO KILLING GIRL. As was stated in the Gazette, Frederick Gebhardt, of Astoria, L. I., was found guilty at Riverhead, yesterday, of the murder in April, last year, of Anna Luther, a young woman whom! he had duped into marrying him to get her money.

FULLY DESCRIBED

A Lady of Pizarro Tells Story of Awful Suffering That Cardui Finally Relieved.

Pizarro, Va.—"I suffered for several years," writes Mrs. Dorma A. Smith, "with that awful backache and the bearng down sensations, so fully described in your book.

"I tried doctors and other medicines and found little relief, until I was induced to try Wine of Cardui, when I found instant relief and today I can heartily recommend Cardui to all suffering women and think there is no other as good."

In some instances, Cardui gives instant relief; in others, it may take a little time.
